

"During these tough times, workers need a wide variety of services," said Congresswoman Kaptur. She said the grant will be used to provide access to the full array of services through the state of Ohio, including counseling, case management, job search and job placement.

The grant to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services will serve workers at the Chrysler plant as well as General Motors plants in Lordstown and Moraine, plus 12 suppliers companies throughout the state.